

EXPLORE YOUR LIBRARY

Reference Section

- Find an encyclopedia set. In the "P" volume, find the article on Harry Potter. Answer these questions:
 - a. What year was Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone published?
 - b. What was the title of Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone when it was published in the United States?
- Find a dictionary. Look up the word "leukemia." Write down one definition of the word.
- Find an atlas and locate a map of your state. Write down the coordinates for your city.

Non-Fiction Section

- Find a non-fiction book about electricity. Write down its title, author, and call number.
- Find a biography about one of the presidents of the United States. Write down the years of his presidential term.
- Find a book of poetry.

Fiction Section

- Find a book by Beverly Cleary. Write down the call number. What does the F in the call number stand for?
- Find a Newberry Award book and write down its title and the first sentence in the book.
- Find a fiction book with at least 350 pages.

Searching the Computer

- Go to a computer and search for a book on Mexico. Locate the book using its call number and write down this information:
 - a. What is the capital of Mexico?
 - b. What is the population of Mexico?
 - c. Who is the head of the Mexican government?
 - d. What percentage of Mexicans belong to the Roman Catholic religion?

Magazines

- Go to the magazines section of the library. Choose a magazine that looks interesting to you. Look through the magazine.
 - a. Write down the title of one article you might like to read.
 - b. Write a sentence predicting what the article is about.

Name another section in the library you haven't explored today: _____