

Immigrating To America

You're immigrating to America. What will you bring? Draw the things you would pack. Add captions or labels to tell about why you chose each item. On the back of the page, write the story of where you came from, why you are immigrating to America, and what you think life will be like when you get there.

