

Book Projects

- Write and present a book report
- Story box: choose a favorite story and collect things that go along with it.
- Story scene: re-create one scene from the book as a model
- Character box: represent one character with items in a box
- Mural: Paint or draw a mural of a theme, character, or scene
- Venn Diagram: For example, compare book version with movie version, or compare two different books or characters.
- Re-create your own version of the story
- Make a poster advertising the book
- Make a commercial promoting the book or a part of it
- Write a poem based on it
- Puppet show
- Play
- Create a game based on the book's ideas
- Make a character or story quilt
- Make a family tree or pedigree chart about the characters
- Make a collection of favorite quotes from the book
- Learn more about the author
- Simulated letter
- Penpal/cousin/parent/grandparent letter
- Learning log
- Journal entry
- Cluster
- Make a mobile about characters or parts of story
- Make a recipe
- Write a script (plays, movies, skits, puppet shows, etc.)
- Write a newspaper article or make a newspaper
- Make character puppets
- Write a story in the same style
- Read more books by the same author
- Research the author/illustrator
- Write a book review
- Write an alternate ending
- Sew a costume
- Make a character silhouette
- Draw a character sketch
- Make a family tree
- Cook a meal based on the book
- Make a story board showing the setting, rising action, climax, and conclusion