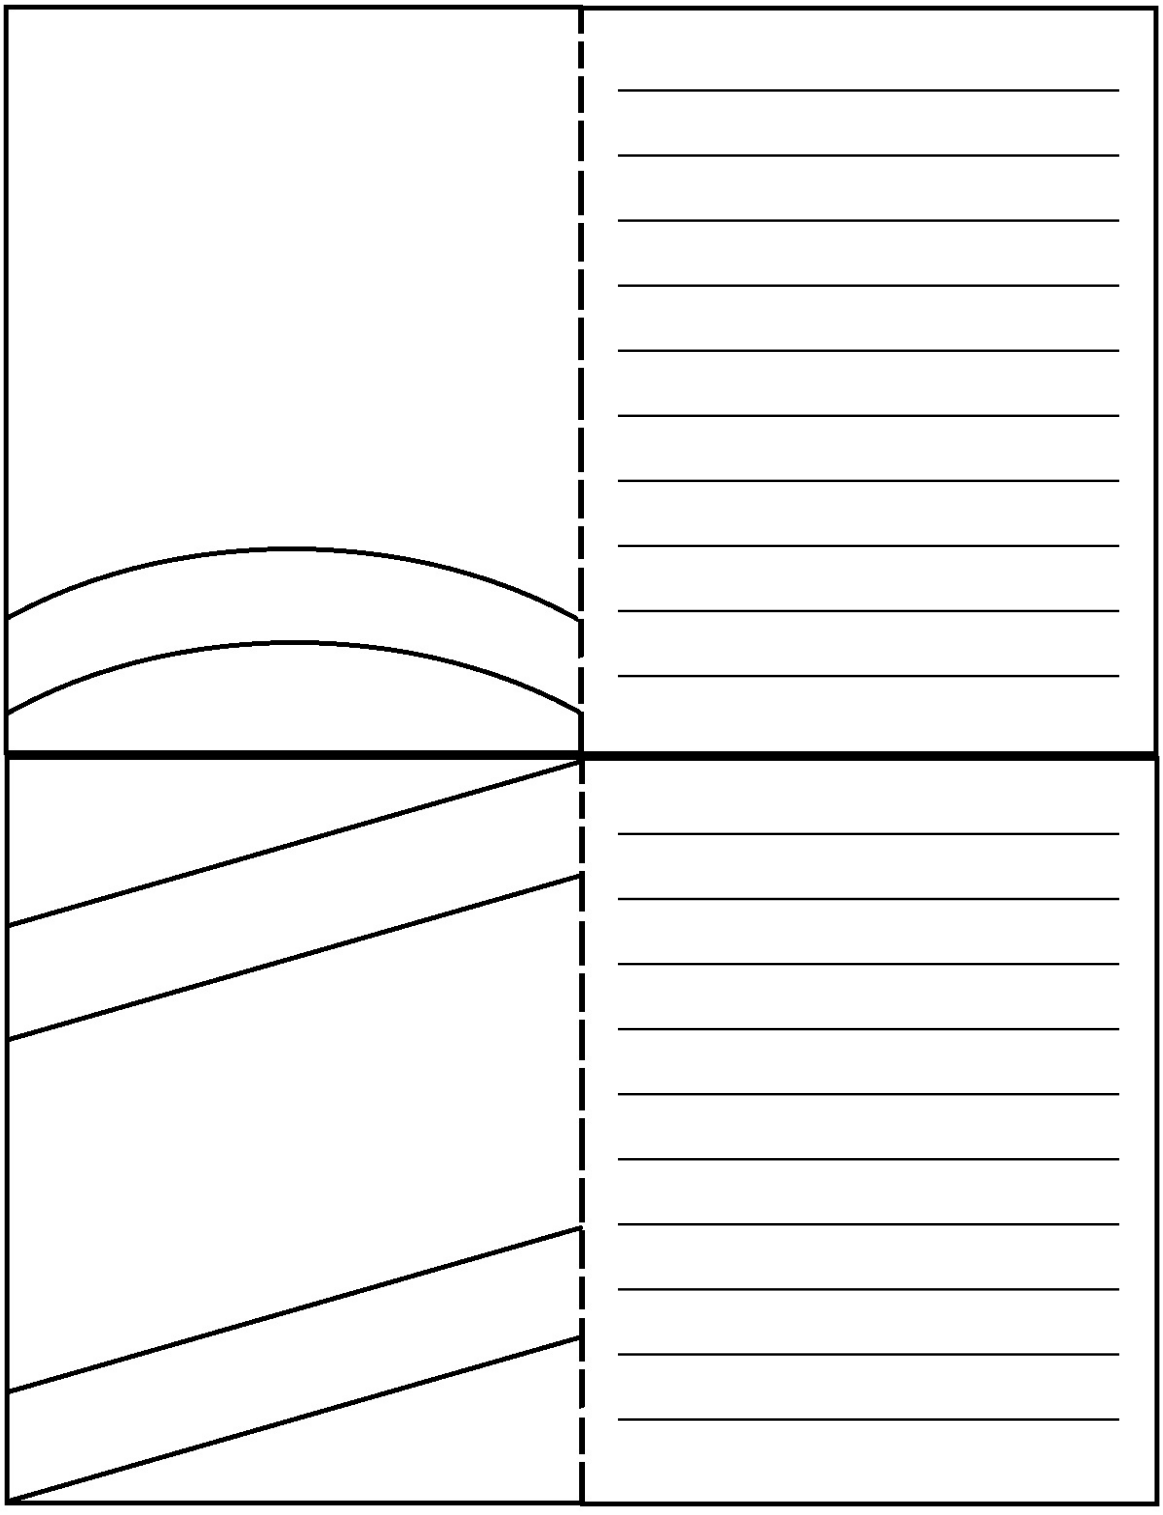
Geography Trading Cards


Use the trading card templates to make trading cards of countries around the world. Cut the cards apart on the solid lines, fold on the dotted lines. On the front of the card draw a picture of a famous landmark in the country and write the name of the country. On the back of the card write down stats for the country, like capital city, area in square kilometers, language spoken, and so on.